OOTACAMUND,

21st April 1897.

Dear Major Romilly

I asked Col. Lane Sewell if he would like to be considered for the Consular Agency at Pondicherry but he does not wish it.

I have now sent the only applicant telegrams to all districts asking for names of officers desirous of the app^t under Review French

I wish let you know the result as soon as possible, but I am not sanguine about it, as when he asked before, the only applicant

OOTACAMUND,

7th May 1897.

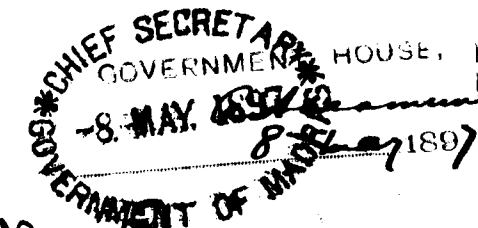

My dear Romilly

In continuation of my note to you of 21st ult., I write to say that Captain Hebebrand has applied for the appointment of Consul Agent at Pondicherry for a year, the term

Suggested by you in your letter of 19th ult.

His Confidential Reports are quite satisfactory & the L. G. C. sanctions his being so employed, subject of course to the final sanction of Govt of India -

He belongs to the 5th M. I. & is reported

My dear Sir,

Please send the two enclosed letters. Mr.
Eccleston accepts Capt.
Keegan, and desires that you will be so good as to put the thing through as fast as you can, using the electric telegraph when needed.

Yours sincerely,

W. H. Murray
