GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From Lieutenant-Colonel E. G. BARROW, Officiating Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Adjutant-General in India, dated Simla, 28th April 1897, No. 1179-B.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 97-D., dated the 14th January 1897, stating that as applications of Officers Commanding Volunteer Corps for changes in uniform as a rule involve a principle and changes in existing regulations, His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief is of opinion that all such questions should be submitted by Lieutenant-Generals Commanding to Army Head-quarters for consideration and subsequent transmission to the Government of India if considered desirable, in place of the present procedure under which these questions are submitted through General Officers Commanding Districts and Lieutenant-Generals Commanding to Local Governments, who refer to the Government of India when necessary.

2. In reply, I am directed to state, for the information of the Commander-in-Chief, that the Government of India concur in the view above expressed, and to request that, under His Excellency's orders, a draft of the necessary corrections to Army Regulations, India, Volume IX, Provisional Issue, may be submitted for their approval.

Copy of the above forwarded to the Government of Madras, Public Department, with reference to Military Department No. 1660-B., dated 13th June 1894.

(Signed) C. H. SELWYN, Captain,
Asst. Secy. to the Govt. of India.
