DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

I have the honour to state that the Civil Surgeon, Ootacamund, having purchased as usual warm clothing to the extent of Rs 15 for the use of his office peon, the Accountant General objects to admit the claim without the sanction of Government.

Free supply of warm clothing is very necessary in the case of menial servants employed on the hills to secure willing and continued service. I therefore request that Government will be pleased to authorize the Accountant-General to withdraw the objection and pass the amount in question. This peon is not on the list of servants for whom liveries and clothing are allowed and I request that he may be added to the list.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

C. Sibthorpe

Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras.

Public DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

With reference to endorsement No: 850, Public, dated the 9th April 1897, herewith returned, I have the honor to state that the Civil Surgeon Potaamund, has been purchasing clothing at the expense of the state in accordance with the practice in vogue for years past and the charges connected therewith appear to have been brought under I(b) Contingencies admissible without detailed audit.

2. In this connection I beg to add that free supply of clothing to the peon is considered very necessary as it is not possible for him to meet such charges from his small pay in a hill station like Potaamund where the weather is inclement and provisions are dear.

I have the honor to be,

The annual supply of warm clothing to the office peon of the Civil Surgeon, Ootacamund, at a cost not exceeding Rs.11 and of a cumby biennially at a cost of not more than Rs.3 is sanctioned.
