PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

G.O., No. 244, Educational, dated 28th April 1897.

I have the honour to request that, under Article 89 of the Civil Service Regulations, the sanction of Government may be obtained for Mr. Moberly, I.C.S., accepting a remuneration of Rs. 40 for having taken part in the examination in drill and gymnastics of the students of the Training College, Rajahmundry, in August last under rule 3, chapter VIII, of the Educational Rules. Mr. T. R. Scott was first appointed to assist in the conduct of the examination, but, before the date of the examination, he was transferred to the Presidency College. As the services of a competent examiner on the spot were urgently needed, Mr. Moberly was requested to undertake the work, which he was kind enough to do, and I beg that he may be permitted to accept the remuneration offered to him.

The Government considers it unbecoming for the Collector or Judge of a district to appear as a paid examiner at a school examination in his own district and is therefore unable to sanction the acceptance by Mr. Moberly of the remuneration proposed. The same remark is applicable to all officers of the Indian Civil Service in respect of examinations in the district in which they are employed.

(Signed) G. S. FORBES,
Secretary to Government.
