No. 986

From

M. A. Michael Esqre,

ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL TO THE

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

To

THE Chief Secretary to Government, Public Department.

SIR,

With reference to Government Order No 190 R dated the 15th of February 1897, I have the honour to submit the following explanations.

In paragraph 3 of the above Government Order it is stated that liveries are supplied to fifteen persons only including the Jamadar and daffadar. But from Government

N^o 568 Public dated 20th May 1874 and Government Order N^o 286 Public dated 1st 27 April 1894 it will be seen that Government first sanctioned the supply of liveries to one Jamadar, one daffadar and ten peons, and that when in 1894 the Board of Revenue requested sanction for the supply of liveries to sixteen peons besides the Jamadar and the daffadar Government ordered that "in future 15 peons of the Land Revenue Department will receive liveries". As the Jamadar and the daffadar were excluded from the term "peons" both in the first order and in the application of the Board of Revenue this office interpreted the latter order to be to fifteen peons excluding the Jamadar and

and the daffadar. As however Government has now stated in the order under reply that fifteen peons included the Jamadar and the daffadar the necessary correction will now be made.

With reference to the remarks in paragraph 4 I would observe that as paragraph 6 of Government Order N^o 26 dated 13th January '94 Public in which the maximum cost of white clothing to chobdars and peons was fixed at Rs 38 and Rs 18 respectively referred only to clothing supplied to peons employed in the offices of the Board of Revenue the office was under the impression maximum number of men who may be taken to the Hills in any year so as to enable this office to pass charges on account of warm clothing upto the maximum limit so fixed.

The 'Gollah' referred to in the last sentence of paragraph 4 will be removed from the statement as his appointment was abolished when the peons establishment was reorganised.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedt. Servant,
Whiskel
Offg. Accountant General.

FOR ORDERS.

The Acct Genl replies to the remarks in f.O. R. 192 Public d/15-2-97. There is one point calling for remarks and one for orders.

The Acct Genl says - "In para 3 of the above order it is stated that liveries are supplied to 15 persons only including the Jamadar & daffadar. That from f.O. ^{588 Feb} 20.5.74 and f.O. ^{286 Feb} 27.4.94 it will be seen that first sanctioned the supply of liveries to one Jamadar, one daffadar, and ten persons, and that when in 1894 the Bd of Rev requested sanction for the supply of liveries to sixteen persons beside the Jamadar & the daffadar for ordered that in future 15 persons in the Land Rev Dept will receive liveries for the Jamadar & the daffadar."

THE HON'BLE MR. BLISS, C.I.E.

THE HON'BLE MR. GROSE, C.I.E.

FOR ORDERS.

"and the daffadar were included from the term 'peons' both in the first order and in the application of the B. d. of the. This office interprets the latter order to refer to fifteen peons including the Jamadar and daffadar. It however felt has now stated ^{in the order} under reply that fifteen peons included the Jamadar and the daffadar. The necessary correction will now be made.

G.O. 286 Pub. d. 7. 4. 94 might indeed have been misapprehension. But from the list ^{of the} B. d. Resolution and that order, and the order therein, it is quite clear that the peons included the Jamadar and daffadar, and that the Board of the so understood it is distinctly stated in its Resolution recorded in G.O. 809 Pub. d. 6. 8. 96 In regard to the Remark in para 4 of the that "There is a Establishment for warm clothing" as "only the requisite number of menials is taken to the hills" and the establishment "varies from year to year", the Act itself refers to G.O. N. 26 Pub. d. 13. 1. 94 in the Appendix to which 39 peons in the Chief Secretariat and 15 in the Rev. Sect. are shown to be provided with warm clothing. That list was however merely a compilation for convenience ^{and conveyed no direction} and reference, and the fixed establishment for warm clothing was expensed for. G.O. 1095 Pub. d. 11. 1. 94

The Act itself seems notwithstanding to be right in thinking it advisable to fix the maximum number of men who may be taken to the hills in any year so as to enable his office to pass the charges on account of warm clothing up to the maximum limit of 39.

It is a matter of fact that the number is that Chief Secretariat since 1894 has always been 39 through the year it is expected that there will be 37 including the "police" man i.e. the man with the Act, Special Branch (Mr. Fullerton).

The number in Rev. is believed to be 15 each year.

A formal enquiry will be made if necessary but it is submitted that it is better to fix it on maximum.
