HON'BLE MEMBER.

it will be seen that the Viceroy's telegram at was taken as limiting aid to the Presidency Town

Col Moore asks whether there is any chance of a similar concession being made this Jubilee

The circumstances of 1887

& 1897 are widely different.

Govt is now in straits or some.

thing by like it for money; economy anywhere has been reformed and there is before the administration of the country the prospect of having to meet a very heavy outlay for famine. I doubt by much indeed if the Govt of India will be at all disposed to follow the precedent of 1887 this but there seems to be no harsh in asking.

11 May 1897

My dear Phil

I would ask you to look up S.O 154 Miss L. Feb 1887 and any correspondence relating to it.

It appears that in 87 the Treasury refused assistance towards the expenses of the Entertainment of the Children - On this application was made on 5th Feb. for a grant of £4000 and thereof was granted.

Is there any chance of similar action this year?
As things are at present we shall not have much money.

Yours truly

W. J. F. Price
