CHIEF SECRETARY
24 MAY 1887
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

My dear President

In the matter of the Madras Jubilee Address, Moore has sent up the accompanied advance copy.
The real address and Casket will not arrive probably for a considerable time, & as they cannot possibly reach England in time for the Jubilee, Moore proposed that this advance copy, which I now send you, should be signed by a few representative people up here and then be handed to you for despatch officially to England. I have accordingly got a few signatures to it, as you will see.

Will you please now take charge of it, get a few more signatures and then post it off home by tomorrow's mail as an advance copy of the real thing which will follow later.

Yours sincerely,

L. D. M.

I have not yet received your letter of the 10th inst. but am sorry to hear that you are not well. I hope you will soon be able to return to your home. I am very truly,
 Yours,
 J. M. Smith
