Simla, the May 1897.

SIR,

WITH reference to the orders contained regarding the stoppage of the leave of Medical Officers in consequence of the severe strain on the medical services to provide officers for plague and famine duty, I am directed to state that the Governor General in Council has decided that leave on urgent private affairs and privilege leave may now be granted to Medical Officers when the Local Government or Administration under whom the officer is serving is satisfied of the absolute necessity for the leave applied for, and when the Local Government or the Government of India can arrange for the conduct of the duties of the officer concerned during his absence.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

R. NATHAN,

for Secretary to the Government of India.
