In regard to the signing of the "Cash Balance report", & "Treasury Account", this duty may be performed by the senior or any gazetted officer when the Collector is on tour. The local Govt. has issued (No. 336. Civil Acc. Code) to give permission to the Collector to leave on his signing these accounts. It is submitted therefore that on this point no reference to Madras is required.

As regards the half yearly inspection of Treasuries, it appears that the Civil Account Code rules (No. 339) lay down that the inspection must be made periodically. The half yearly inspection is presented by a note of the District of Revenue. This note may therefore be held to comply without any report to Madras (note telephone from the Secy. is attached) R 10/6/97

SIR,
 I have the honor to state that as I have to be constantly touring on account of I amine my stay at Head Quarters is very short and I therefore asked the Accountant-General whether there is any objection to my delegating the marginally mentioned duties connected with the Account Branch of my office to my Special Assistant, Mr. Gillman, who is my locum tenens at Head Quarters. He replied that the delegation of the duties referred to is opposed to the provisions of the Civil Account Code and suggested my referring the matter to the Local Government for its sanction.

Subject to a refusal of its action to the Government of India for approval?

I therefore request that the sanction of Government may be obtained for the delegation of the duties in question.
