OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF PRISONS, MADRAS.
Camp. Vellore, the 9th June 1897.
 Dated

From

A. G. CARDEW, Esq., M.A.,

INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF PRISONS,

MADRAS,

To

THE HONOURABLE MR. J. F. Price C.S.I.

CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

SIR,

Enclosures.

In G.O. No. 1095 Public dated 3rd October 1896 a list was laid down of warm clothing allowed to be supplied to Menial Servants. In this list the cost of liveries allowed to Peons in this office is fixed at Rs 12 per head per annum. In the course of the G.O. it is remarked that where turbans are not given Rs 10 per suit is sufficient and as Rs 12 is allowed in the case of my office it is apparent that it was intended in this case to allow the issue of turbans provided that the sum of Rs 12 per head is not exceeded. The Treasury Deputy Collector Nilgiris has however objected to the bill at the rate of Rs 12 per head on the ground that the G.O. states that Turbans will be supplied in future only to peons of the Secretariat and the Board of Revenue, but this declaration is understood to apply only to the Revenue Department, as in other cases the grant of a turban to menials of other offices is expressly allowed - e.g. to the peons of Conservators of Forests. If the peons of this office prefer to exceed the Rs 12 which Government has allowed them in buying a turban at Rs 1/4 and a slightly cheaper suit of warm clothes instead of expending the whole sum of Rs 12 on the warm suit, it does not appear to me that there is any objection to this course. The G.O. has not defined what is meant by a "suit of clothes" and in this country the phrase may fairly be said to include the indispensable head covering. I therefore, request that so long as the fixed allowance of Rs 12 per head is not exceeded the Account Department may be authorized to pass the amount.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

W. J. Cardew.

Please see the current. It is submitted that the I. G.'s report is reasonable. Please see the clothing supplied to the sub jail wardens at Othacānand & Kodānand, at a cost of Rs 12, which includes a turban.

It is submitted that the report may be granted, the Treasury Officer authorized to withdraw his objection, & the ruling against the I. G.'s peons in G.O. no 1098 P.B. d. 3.10.96 changed from "1 suit of clothes" to "warm clothing", as in the case of the attendants in the same office. This will leave the I. G. 2 per head to spend up to Rs 12.
