Chief Secretary to Government

Fort Saint George, Madras.

HONOURED SIR,

I the Representative and Head of the ancient Palkonda Zamindar's family, and Political Pensioner, humbly crave permission to express our most loyal sincere congratulations to Her Most Gracious Majesty Victoria, Queen of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, on the completion of the sixtieth year of Her Majesty's most happy and prosperous reign, a reign not merely the longest but the most glorious in the annals of the world.

It is a universal prayer all over the Empire that Her Imperial Majesty may long be spared to rule over us, through Her most worthy Representatives, for giving protection to our persons, justice in our temporal concerns, and benefit of our Hindu Aryan Laws and Religion.

My venerable old mother and my family unite with me in my earnest and heartfelt prayer that the Almighty God may vouchsafe to Her Most Gracious Majesty and the Royal Family, a long life and prosperous reign.

With sentiments of profound veneration and loyalty,

I beg to remain,
Honoured Sir,
Your most obedient and humble servant,
