2. D. Oppert now writes to say

"The French Committee of the Congress" has received the adhesions of the Govt of India and of the Prov. Govts of the North West, of Bengal and others, together with the names of the delegates, but that no such intimation has been received from the Govt of Madras". He further states that on enquiring ^{was made} at the India Office he was informed that no communication had been received from any of the Govts in India relative to the appt of them of delegates to the forthcoming International Congress to be held in Paris.

Professor Justus Oppert, Berlin.

To.

The Honorable the Chief Secretary to Government For George, Madras.

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that I arrived in due time by G.O. No 1185, dated 6th November 1896, nominating me to represent the Madras Presidency at the Eleventh International Congress of Orientalists to be held in Paris in September 1897, and that on the 17th December I accepted this honorable appointment. It appears that the French Committee of the Congress have received the adhesions of the Governments of India, and of the Provincial Governments of the North West, of Bengal and of others, together with the names of the delegates, but that up to now no such intimation has been received from the Government of Madras. As an enquiry made at the India Office, I was also informed that that Office had not received any communication from the Government of India. As the opening of the International Congress is approaching, I respectfully request to receive official intimation of the sanction of the nomination, as honorably conferred on me by the Government of Madras.

I have the honour to be

Sir,

your most obedient servant
