ENCLOSURES

SUBJECT.

*Copy of the draft telegram which their Highnesses
M. Umamba & Jeejamba
Boji Sahib wish to send to Her Majesty in honour of her Diamond Jubilee*

TO

Her Majesty, Victoria, QUEEN OF THE UNITED KINGDOM OF
GREAT BRITAIN & IRELAND AND EMPRESS OF INDIA.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,

We the undersigned, i. e. H. H. M. UMAMBA BOYISAHIB Senior Ranees, and H. H. M. JIJAMBA BOYISAHIB of Tanjore Palace, beg to approach your Gracious Majesty, with feelings of reverence and joy, to convey our warm and hearty congratulations on the memorable and unprecedented occasion of Your Majesty's Diamond Jubilee.

The assumption of the imperial purple by Your Majesty marks the commencement of a new and brilliant era in the history of the nations of the Indian Empire.

The parental care and attention Your Majesty bestows upon us, the Ranees of Tanjore, and the kind and generous treatment our royal relations receive at Your Majesty's hands, have enabled us to maintain unimpaired the past prestige of the Tanjore Kings and conduct ourselves in a manner befitting our rank and dignity.

The incalculable benefits conferred upon the nations by Your Majesty's wise and glorious reign of sixty years such as, Education, Irrigation works, Sanitation, Railways, &c., the improvements in the social and political organisation of the empire and Your Majesty's noble acts of humanity, such as Your Majesty's benevolence during the devastating famine of 1877, are too numerous to be detailed in this brief address.

We beg to conclude our congratulatory address by offering our most fervent prayers to the omnipotent Lord of the universe for the health and longevity of Your Gracious Majesty and Your Majesty's family, and the uninterrupted and continued enjoyment of the peace and plenty which characterise Your Majesty's benign reign.

TANJORE PALACE,
29th June 1897.

Your Majesty's most loyal and humble dependants,
