Two Complimentary
telegrams are also submitted.

Though dated 22nd, they were received in the office on the 23rd, and may therefore be sent on by post.

* One ~~letter~~ from the Governor Genl. was delivered to me at Govt. House on the 22nd at about 9 P.M. & I sent it to the Office next morning.

NOTE FOR THE UNDER SECRETARY.

A copy of an address from the Kahlstein Gumindin is submitted for approval.
It appears to be perfectly unobjectionable.
The original has been received with the copy and has been retained pending orders.
Instructions are issued as to the date up to which addresses are ~~not~~ to be ^{accepted} received for transmission. It is very probable that some will be received after the 22nd. Are these to go on or are they too late to be colonial as too late.
