CURRENT No 2260

To

The Chief Secretary to

The Government of Madras

Sir,

I am the author of "Harischandra the Martyr to Truth", an original drama based upon the Puranic story of Harischandra, very popular all over India. From the two copies herewith sent, you will be able to see the style of the work. As a loyal Hindu subject, who is bound, both by tradition and practice, to present some sort of NUZZUR to his Sovereign, on such important occasions as the Coronation, Jubilee, and the like, I wish to lay this humble production of mine as my humble tribute, at the foot of the exalted throne of Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen Empress of India, on the present glorious occasion of Her Diamond Jubilee, and to solicit Her Majesty to be gracious enough to permit me to dedicate the work to Her; and as Her Majesty is a typical illustration of our ideal heroes and heroines of our ancient classical dramas, not only by Her exalted position as our Sovereign, but also by Her virtue and spotless character, in short, as Her Most Gracious Majesty is our present Harischandra the Truthful, I am specially anxious therefore to dedicate the work to Her; and the present occasion seems to me a fitting one.

As His Excellency the Governor is Her Majesty's representative in our Presidency, I beg to forward the accompanying copies to you and humbly pray that you will be good enough to lay them before His Excellency, on the occasion of Her Majesty's Diamond Jubilee, and do whatever may be further needful in the matter.

Of the two copies herewith sent, I intend one to be forwarded to Her Majesty and the other for perusal in the Secretariat, if necessary.

My dear Sir,

With reference to the accompanying CNo 2260, His Excellency would like the man's letter positively acknowledged but the request that his book should be sent on ignored, as the reply, so as not to hurt his feelings.

Yours sincerely,

FOR ORDERS.

The note should be sent to the Queen. It has no special reference to the Queen's long reign or to Her Majesty herself. It is a copy of a Hindoo Drama. One might just as well send a copy of "A man of Poplar", or of "Second Thoughts".
