JUN 1897
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

SIR,

As I observe in the Over-land Mail received by the mail of the 30th April that the retirement from the service on a gratuity of Lieut. Alexander Lines is gazetted, I write to say that if possible Captain A. G. Fitz Roy Day of the 1st Dorset Regiment may be appointed Adjutant of this Regiment in succession to Lieut. Lines.

Captain Day officiated as Adjutant for one month at the end of last year during Lieut. Lines' absence on leave, and so far as I was able to judge he seemed to be eminently well fitted for the appointment which will on Lieut. Lines' retirement fall vacant and I very much hope it may be possible to arrange that it may be granted to him.

Submitted for the consideration of the Government the following report of the Dy. Commr. Madras Ry. Volunteer, dated 21st June 1897, in reference to the appointment of Capt. Arthur Pilkington as a student at the Government Engineering College, Madras.

The Dy. Commr. Madras Ry. Volunteer reports that he has been informed that there is no objection to the appointment of Capt. Arthur Pilkington as a student at the Government Engineering College, Madras.

It is suggested that the Dy. Commr. Madras Ry. Volunteer should be requested to inform the Dy. Commr. Madras Ry. Volunteer of the result of his inquiry.

*Yours faithfully,
Br. General
Dy. Commr.*

FOR ORDERS.

The retirement from the service of Lt. Brice Lines, the present Adjutant of the Madras Ry. Volunteers, having been gazetted, the Commandant asks that Capt. A. H. Day may be appointed in his place. He reports that he found Capt. Day "eminently well fitted" for the post when he officiated as Adjutant last December during Lt. Lines' absence on leave. The D. A. is forwarding the application and states that there is no regimental objection to the appointment.

A Minute of appointment is accordingly submitted. Has the Govt. order to make the app't. instructions. L.H. 15/6/97 P.T.O.

NOTE

Presented to H.M. on the minute of Capt. A. H. Day's app't. was not signed.

Notwithstanding this, it seems necessary that the Government approve of the appointment, to formally apply for Capt. Day's services - vide P and telephone message from the D.A. just before E. in Lt. Brice's case
