NOTE FOR THE Chief Clerk.

Rajagopal, a peon attached to the Chief Secretary's house, stated that at about 8.30 P.M. on 2nd instant he found his master missing. He says he left behind the door of the Chief Secretary's office room & that none entered the Chief Secretary's room except a peon from the Telegraph office. Just when the telegraph peon had come, Rajagopal says he had to go to the Stables to bring a ~~decent~~ Cooly & that when he returned from there the peon from the Telegraph office had left the office. He further reports that he made enquiries of the other peons attached to the Chief Secretary's house but could not get any information about the missing umbrella. The Police have been informed of the theft. The peon now requests that he may be supplied with an umbrella; the one that is was supplied to him only 1 year.
