My dear Sir

I send this letter June 4.
on by our ad requested.
I rather liked Mr. Brown. He seemed to me the most like an Englishman of the Native Civilian.

Dear Mr. Grege.

9/5/27 Your Grace

Excuse me for troubling you but as I don't know Mr. Sim I thought I would just write to you. Because, you know I was transferred the other day from Cocoma to act for Thornton as asst at Kamrad. But unfortunately stays only for a month, as Thornton had come back. I have no reside as asst in Madura, but was expecting to get another acting appointment as I thought there were some vacancies. I find Hughes is transferred to North coast, but as yet none has been appointed as special assistant of Madhav in his place. I would like to go back to my old district again, but since I don't know what arrangements will be made. I don't suppose I have any claims better than anyone else senior to me if there be any, waiting for an acting appointment.

But I only write to express a wish to be transferred back again to the Northern District - Ganjam Vizag or Madhav and I shall be very thankful if you will kindly speak to Mr. Price or Mr. Price about it.

Yours Sincerely
Alfred R. Banerji

GOVERNMENT HOUSE,
OOTACAMUND.

My dear Price,

With reference to Mr. Horn's request for a Special Finance Assistant for himself and for one for Elwin, Mr. Excellency proposes following arrangements.

Oldfield to be Special Assistant to Horn on acting Sub-Master's pay. Banerji to be Special Assistant to Elwin on acting Head assistant's pay.

Both to join at once. Oldfield is now at Kurnool, but he is much more urgently required at Vizagapatam and he is almost the only person who can be shifted without ^{great inconvenience} ~~breaking convenience~~ to the administration; he would stay with Horne until the famine began to lessen and he would then, when
E. B. Elwin the Principal Assistant was given the privilege leave that he has asked for, step in to Vizagapatam to act for him. Bauerji is a Babu, but he is a sporting little chap as his enclosed letter to Grose shows, and His Excellency has very good accounts of him from Oxford.

His Excellency thinks therefore that as he wants to go north and as his work will ~~stand~~ be only office work, he will suit very well as an assistant to Elwin. Oldfield's transfer will leave Kurnool in a ship would like you to telegraph to the Collector of Kurnool to ask him how Harding is getting on and how long is he likely to be laid up.

If only for a few days, no one need look after itself until Harding gets well. If Harding will be laid up for some time. His Excellency would like you to refer the matter
