Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo July 1897.

Sir,

I am desired to inform you that Mr. C.H. Wilkinson, the Superintendent of Immigration from India to Ceylon, has been instructed to proceed to Tuticorin to endeavour to arrange for the segregation and accommodation of the immigrant labourers leaving that port for Colombo, and I am to request you to be so good as to cause him to be afforded any assistance in your power.

I am, Sir,
Your Obedient Servant,

for Colonial Secretary.

The Hon'ble,

The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.
