I have the honour to request that your Lordship will kindly inform me how I am to recover sums spent in sending distressed British subjects from the colony of Pondicherry to English territory. The usual course is to send them to the relieving authorities in Madras, and, the fare being small, i.e., 1 rupee 5 annas, it has been the custom for the Consular Agents to pay it themselves.

READ—also the following paper:—

From Captain H. NEPEAN, Acting British Consular Agent, Pondicherry and Karikal, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Pondicherry, 23rd June 1897, No. 128.

With reference to G.O., R. No. 677, Public, dated 11th June 1897, I have the honour to state that the average monthly expenditure for helping distressed British subjects would probably amount to Rs. 20. During the first week of my stay in this place, I spent about Rs. 10 in this manner. I do not, as a rule, render pecuniary assistance to all those who come here, but only on satisfying myself that the person is deserving of any help.

ORDER—No. 943, Public, dated 15th Ju' 897.

The British Consular Agent will be authorised to incur an expenditure, not exceeding Rs. 100 per annum, in affording relief to distressed British subjects in Pondicherry.

FOR ORDERS.

The B.C.A. having addressed the Foreign Office asking for instructions as to how he should receive sums spent in sending distressed British Subjects from Pondicherry to English territory, the Secy
of State referred him to this Govt. The B.C.A. in answer to a reference, reports that the average monthly expenditure will probably be Rs 20. It was apparently the custom for Genl. Wilson to pay such sums from his own pocket.

Distress Magistrate was, under G.O. no 1864 Jsd. d. 31-7-71 authorised to sanction the Expenditure of Rs 25 per hundred on paper bundles, without reference to Govt.

The Foreign Office, presumably, supplies funds for such purposes to British consuls in other parts of the world.

As however they will not do so at Pondicherry it is submitted that this Govt. must.

Orders are solicited.

AK. Rs 20 per 100. no. appears to be rather an interesting

6/7/97. I am, especially considering the distance between Calcutta & Pondicherry. This is as far as I am aware the first application for funds in view of trading concerns.

But the fact is in Pondicherry. I understand to the business concerned he might be asked for?

20/2/97.

I think we might sanction his spending up to Rs 100 a year, which should be an ample sum, without further reference to him.

NOTE FOR THE ~~UNDER SECRETARY~~

The point raised by the
H^d. Clerk B.C.A. Pondy
Office, seems to fall under the rules for the treatment of pauper travellers (File A)

and not under those relating to Vagrancy.
The A.C. does not say whether the distressed
British Subjects are European Vagrants
sent to the poor work
house at Madras.

If this is so, Pub shd
deal with the matter ~~similarly to~~ (Vol 50 283 of 97 for precedent).

Otherwise the Ct shd be transf^d to Jndl. But that the B.C.A. might be asked to make himself clear.

Yours

27/5/57

U.S. for orders. It seems better to make a reference to the B.C. Agency & make the point
clear.

The European Vagrancy Act (1872)
does not apply to Pondicherry at all; & the Colonial Agent has no power with regard to it. The cases must therefore be under the paper Kankles' rules, or be specially treated.
The question is one of sending District Subjects from a foreign territory into British territory.
