I regret the delay in sending the drafts.

The 1889 papers had gone to Oaly - & I had to send for them.

It is hardly worth while to reprint the pamphlet - just for one alteration, as suggested by U.R.

In the regard to these drafts, please send them on to the boy, or touch them or do just as you like with them.

The copies kept in the Chief Secretariat office are corrected by the Libby copyist when correction slips are recd from the Heads of Depts concerned.
