The D.A.G. submits the above report for 1896-97. The report is described by the Lieut. Genl. Commr as "very satisfactory".

There is nothing in it which calls for action at present.

Both General Commr and the L. G. C. refer to the approaching resignation by Major Chambers of his appointment as Commr. No formal resignation is however before Govt, nor is it known when this resignation is to take effect.

Mr L. Commr also refers to the paucity of officers. Govt. can, it is submitted, do nothing to remedy this. Improvement must come from the Corps itself.

Submitted that the report may be Recorded 14/7/97. S.

* I heard before I left Madras that Major Chambers intended to resign or something or the other - I forget what in the matter was of course - but he has done nothing he may perhaps have changed his mind: he has infrequently done so
