My dear Price,

Krishnamachari, the one-eyed, in Madras, has forwarded to His Excellency four copies of his pamphlet in Tamil on the Queen's reign, and has asked His Excellency to encourage his efforts in the direction of disseminating healthy vernacular literature among natives, by bringing the existence of his pamphlet to the notice of the Govt. of India as his contribution to the Jubilee literature of the day.

His Excellency thinks that perhaps this might be done. No orders or reply from India would be expected, and the books might simply be forwarded as a part of the Jubilee literature. If you think that a covering letter from Krishnamachari should accompany them, I will write and tell him to send a proper one. His applications so far have been mixed up with letters on other subjects.

Yours sincerely,

Wm King
