NOTE FOR THE CHIEF SECRETARY.

If the proposals re
vacancies are accepted & Ob. there will be no room for the applicant in C. N.
789. W.B. is not anxious to have him. His English is shabby and I don't think he should be brought in on Rs 50/- over the heads of our more experienced Secretaries
hand

Can't
be done

NOTE FOR THE ~~CHIEF~~ SECRETARY.

It is I hear very doubtful that Mr
de Rongaris will be confirmed by the
I. G. This current 789 might well be
over until the end
of the month by which
time we shall know
something definite
about Mr de R.

Dear Bird,
With ref^{ce} to
your DO. of the 8th inst.
I am desired to say
that the Surgeon General
has not yet decided

the question but as soon as he does
the Chief Secretary
will be informed.

Yours sincerely

Simpson

U.S.

My remark was
based on yours
regarding his knowledge of English and
your pencil corrections in his application.
Men who are brought into the office over
the heads of others
are always tried on
probation for a time
first - e.g. our new Cashkeeper.

I will ascertain
whether Mr. Rozario
is likely to be confirmed in the S. G's
office and let you
know the result.

Precis.

There are two
letters here from him,
so you can see what
his handwriting &
English are like!
Also see the book
Epigraphists' opinion
of him in his letter
No. 302 & 15:7.96.

There will in all probability be
a vacancy of 70/- vacancy
