The Chief Secretary to Government.

Sir,

With reference to the two Objection statements which I enclose for favour of return, I have the honour to submit that my Tamil Assistant, T. P. Krishnaswami Sastri, M.A., was, at his request, transferred sub protum to the Revenue Secretariat in July 1897 and that I engaged in his stead G. Venkoba Rao, who has fulfilled his duties with great zeal and to my thorough satisfaction. To-day I received the two enclosures by which Rs. 63-9-9 were recovered from G. Venkoba Rao and his pay lowered from Rs. 50 to Rs. 35. Though I am not acquainted with the principles on which this deduction is made - the Accountant-General speaks of a famine arrangement - it seems to me very hard on a deserving and promising promising Officer, and I request that the Government might be so good as to order the amount recovered to be refunded to G. Venkoba Rao and his pay to be fixed at Rs. 50, the rate at which he was engaged. I may add that T. P. Krishnaswami Sastri is not expected to return to his permanent appointment, that no portion of his present pay is debited to this Department, and that I cannot understand why the recovery is suddenly made after Venkoba Rao has served for five months in undisturbed possession of his pay of Rs. 50/-. If the Government find it impossible to sanction a pay of Rs. 50/- for G. Venkoba Rao, he will have to return to his permanent appointment in the Sub-Court, Nilgiris, where he drew about Rs. 40/- including his hill-allowance, and I shall lose the services of an indispensable subordinate for the last few months of my present appointment.

I have the honour to be, Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
E. Hulstuck

I therefore request that the Government might be pleased to communicate to me their order on the request

FOR ORDERS.

The Fort Epigraphist
reports that in place of T.P.
Krishnaswami Sastri,
his Tamil Asst, who was transferred to the Rev Dept, he engaged the services of G. Vankoba Rao (on a salary of Rs 50) In doing so D. Hultzsch was under the impression that Krishnaswami Sastri's appointment
in the Rev. Secretariat was in a sub pro
tem arrangement
whereas the Rev Dept states the appl was an acting one only
The amount over

to be paid on dock 21 of 4860

overdrawn by Venkoba Rao has been recovered & the Joint Engraphist asks that this amount may be refunded, adding that otherwise Venkoba Rao will have to return to his permanent app't. - the Sub. Const, the Nilgiris, "where he drew about Rs 40 including his bill allowance"

Venkoba Rao's permanent pay is apparently Rs 25 and under present circumstances he is a loss by ^{about} Rs 5, is taking into acct his bill allowance while in the Nilgiris as the acting gather is on pay of Rs 50, the pay of ~~the~~ his present app't)

As Dr. Hultzsch remarks that the Act of the Dept of a

of a fine arrangement the Res Dept was referred to.

It replies that Krishnaaswami Sastri was taken into the Res Dept in the arrangement consequent on the deputation of A Krishna Rao to Bellary to act as Stationary Sub Magistrate, the permanent member having been (so the Res Dept believes) transferred to forensic duty.

Please see note on slip pinned to O.K. 135 Res d/s 7-77

In C 248998 Dr. Hultzsch asks for orders before the 25th as G. Venkoba Rao who is now in camp intends rejoining his permanent app't unless his

by pay is fixed at Rs 50 and the amount recovered
from him refunded
