Your wire R.A. 559 passed to me by Chief Secretary. Am replying through him that Lieut. Gardiner's services were applied for with special view to their being available during period of His Excellency's residence in Madras when all chief State functions and entertainments of year take place.
To dispense with them now when most wanted would be particularly inconvenient and His Excellency hopes that unless something exceptionally unforeseen has suddenly occurred the request for Lieut. Gardiner to rejoin his battery during annual practice will not be pressed -
