His Excellency the Right Honble the Governor in Council, Fort St. George.

The humble petition of Hamida Bi, residing in Trichinopoly, Madras

Most humbly sheweth

Your Excellency's humble petitioner most respectfully begs to state that her ancestors were drawing rice from the Sengunkana during the time of the last three Nabobs of the Carnatic and she holds Samsad for the same - during the life time of ^{her} grand-mother ~~when~~ ^{she} was a pauper of the Nabob's Sengunkana drawing $\frac{1}{2}$ measures of rice daily. my mother went away to up-country and after my father's grandmother's death, the Sengunkana came into the hands of the Madras Govt. and as her mother was not present the daily rice was stopped - Your petitioner's mother also died and your Excellency's poor petitioner being left in a wretched state there being nobody to support her she petitioned Govt. twice before this and her petitions were referred to the Commissioner of Police who has not yet issued any rice on her name.

Such being the case she now prays that her case will be favourably considered and orders for issue of raw rice from the Lungurkana be passed.

For which act of charity she as in duty bound ever pray

From

Lt. Colonel D. D. Pryce: I. S. O.
Paymaster Jarnatic Shipends, Chepak.

The Chief Secretary to Government Fort Saint George.

Sir,

Herewith returned.

With reference to Memorandum N^o 182 dated 24th January 1898 "Public", on petition current N^o 136 from Hannida Bai, I have the honour to state that petitioner is an old gosha widow in destitute circumstances, aged about 60 years.

2. The 40 nominations which the Paymaster is allowed to make in the Triplicane Langarkhana under G.O. N^o 788 dated 7th November 1885 "Political" are intended for non-gosha females and very old and infirm males, and even if a relaxation is made in petitioner's favour there is no vacancy in that list for the present and besides there are already 9 persons registered to take their turn when vacancies occur.

I have the honour to be
Sir

your most obedient servant
