2.4.98

I would represent to H. E. that it would be most unusual to appoint to junior an officer as Mr. Ayling but as Col. of Tanjore, I have a purely temporary measure. The Tanjore Collectorate has always, in my experience, been filled by the appt. of a senior officer of experience and proved merit; and I submit that this unusual custom should not be departed from, especially as the Tanjore Collectorate carries additional pay. Mr. Ayling has not, so far as I can recollect, ever had charge of a district before, except perhaps for a few days as a temporary measure. Moreover, this is a senior officer senior to Mr. Ayling, who is not even a confirmed Sub. Col., who would not be provided with acting Collectorate (a disadvantage).

I quite agree. Tangore is a district that cannot be kept in The accompanying Memorandum of Appointments, which provides for the grant of furlough to Mr. Anderson and is drawn up in accordance with this Reg. the former order, is Cms 24.1.98. HA 24.1.98.

The app^t. is a temporary one, - probably for not more than six weeks at most. Mr. Hyling knows the Dist., as he has been in it now for 2 years. During those two years, he has acted as Sub. Collector, Collector and Judge of the Dist.; that he has already (in 1897) held the Acting Collectorate of Tongue for two months, a longer period than the period that it is now proposed he should hold it for. The only other man whom Mr. Hyling, compares and contrasts in India two months

Collectors also

Collectorate or judicial and available, are Mr. Michael and Mr. Cunningham. The former will be shortly taking leave himself, and the latter it would be undesirable to move for so short a time.

It is not think that members can have the ~~same~~ other facts before them.

Of course if Mr. Ayling is only to hold charge for six weeks, the case is altered. Perhaps H.L. would do me the favour of stating how it will come about that Mr. A. will only act for this short period. It often happens that arrangements originally intended only to last for a short time become almost quite permanent. I don't quite see what is to take Mr.
Ayling out, if he is once put in.

RS

Certainly if Mr. Ayling is only to act for 6 weeks there is no objection

The reply to the Hon. Sir H. Bliss's inquiry, I would remind him that about the beginning of April, I am.

Messrs. Nicholson, O'Farrell, Cole, Stanforth, Twigg, Russell, R. Campbell and Buckley, all eight senior to Mr. Ayling will return to duty, and have to be provided for. Mr. Ayling will have to give place to one of these officers, or to some other officer whom one or other of them will displace.
