My dear Arundel,

When the Government

were pleased to tack on the Xmas. no delay to my Extraordinary Leave without pay in last November (S.O.)

M. 1632 Judd dated 22/11/97,

Here kind interaction no doubt

~~was~~ that I should get my has during the whole of the 1 side commencing the 20th to the ... the ...

December and 10 January out on the 19th of December day which was a Sunday. As no substitute was appointed to act for me I am entitled under the Rules to pay on those days. But the objection the Government General takes is that my one month's Extraordinary leave having commenced on the 21st November it did not expire till the 20th December and therefore he cannot allow me pay for the 19th & 20th December unless the Government cancel those two days leave - in other words alter the grant of my Extra.

 Ordinary leave into one of a period of 28 days instead of one month. As I have lost a good deal as it is, and the amount at stake is not inconsiderable may I ask you to be good enough to get the concession afforded me.

Yours sincerely

High Court of Judicature, Madras, 2nd February 1898,

From

The Honorable Mr. Justice J. A. Davies, Judge, High Court of Judicature, Madras.

To

The Honorable Mr. A. T. Arundel, Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

(through the Accountant-General, Madras.)

Honorable Sir,

When the Government were pleased to grant me extraordinary leave without pay for one month and permitted me to add the Christmas holidays to the leave (G.O., No. 1622, Judicial, dated 22nd November 1897) their intention, I believe, was that I should get my pay during the whole of the holidays commencing the 20th December and the previous day the 19th December which was a Sunday. As no substitute was appointed to act for me, I understand that I am entitled under the Rules to pay on those days.

2. The Assistant Accountant-General in his audit ^{copy} (copy enclosed) has however objected that as my one month's extraordinary leave commenced on the 21st November, it did not expire till the 20th December and therefore that I cannot be allowed pay for the 19th and 20th December. On my referring the matter demi-officially to the Accountant-General, he suggests that the simplest course is for me to apply to the Government to cancel those 2 days leave.

3. In these circumstances I have the honor to request that you will be good enough to obtain the orders of Government regarding the cancellation of two days of my leave by altering the grant of the extraordinary leave into one of a period of 28 days instead of one month.

I have the honor to be,
Honorable Sir,
