Enclosure No. 3

To letter No. 3072 87

Ref: on Op. No. 2115 of 87
 Chief Office of the
 Inspector-General of Police,
 Madras, 25th June 1897.

Order of the Inspector-General of Police on letter from the Superintendent of Police, Godavari, R.C.No. 296, dated 7th June 1897.

Obviously now the Superintendent must at once find accommodation for all the offices ^{etc} to be taken up by the Railway. The Deputy Inspector-General, Northern Range, is requested at once to visit Rajahmundry and find out what is best to be done. A good site must be found for the new Police office and Reserve huts and hospital and in the meantime temporary accommodation must be found as soon as possible.

Now Coconada is connected by rail with Rajahmundry, it might perhaps be best to move the Police Head Quarters there. The Deputy Inspector-General should, if possible, see the District Magistrate and consult him upon what had best be done - frame some definite proposals and submit them at a very early date. The Inspector-General can do nothing on such a letter as is now submitted.

SIR,

ENCLOSURES.

Given.

I have the honor to say that the Engineer in charge of the Godavari Bridge works has given us notice that he will very shortly require the land on which the present Police Hospital stands in Rajahmundry. The new railway line will run right through the building. I have, therefore, the honor to ask that the sanction of Government will be obtained to the payment of Rs 25 monthly rental, for a private building, which has been selected for a Police Hospital. The building has been approved by the Medical Officer and I saw it when recently in Rajahmundry. It appeared ^{to be} suitable for its purpose.

2. Later on, we shall require to rent a building for the Police Superintendent's office and stores, as the Railway will require the land on which these offices stand. This, however, will not be till November and I hope that, ^{then} the house, now occupied by the Superintendent, will be vacant. It will make a good office.

3. I enclose the correspondence on the subject.

Have the honor to be,
