MEMORANDUM.

In a recent similar case the Government of India enquired whether endeavours had been made to ascertain whether the officers concerned desired to resign their commissions or to be placed on the supernumerary list as it is not desirable that officers should be publicly struck off the strength of their corps if any other course is possible.

2. In this case Lieutenant Campbell was presumably employed in Madras prior to proceeding on furlough and his whereabouts are likely known.

3. A further communication is accordingly awaited before submission of

FOR ORDERS.

S (front)

On the 4th December 1897 the Commandant of the Madras Volunteer Guards recommended that the name of Lieut: Colin Campbell should be removed from the rolls of his Corps in accordance with para 97, A.R.I., Vol: IX, Provisional Issue, he having absented himself without leave for a period of 11 months over the 12 months granted him in G.O.No.1473 Public d/ 17-12-95. On this recommendation being forwarded by the G.O.C. the D.A.G. (vide his memorandum at R) pointed out that in a previous similar case the Govt. of India had stated that it was not desirable that officers should be publicly struck off the strength of their Corps if any other course was possible. He therefore directed that enquiry should be made as to the whereabouts of Lieut: Campbell.

A²

S (back)

It is now reported that Lieut Campbell left India in December 1895. He was at the time of his departure employed by in view to ascertaining whether he wished to resign or be placed on the Supernumerary List by the Bank of Madras. The Secretary, Bank of Madras, states that Lieut: Campbell has left the Bank and that his present address is unknown. The D.A.G. therefore forwards the correspondence to Govt. for the necessary action.

Please see letters flagged C and B to the Govt. of India and the reply thereto, viz Govt. of India letter No. 3112 B Mily., d/3-12-95

Para 97 A.R.I. states that Officers who without leave, or without having previously tendered their resignations, absent themselves for periods over three months will be removed from the Corps. As all enquiries possible in the case have now been made, and as no further information is forthcoming as to the whereabouts of Lieut: Campbell, orders are solicited whether the Govt. of India may now be addressed; and if so, whether the matter should be dealt with separately or along with Currents 4219 etc.
of '98 vide V in the linked file.
The present current had to be voiced returned to the Kepee dept before the paper flagged A. Hence the delay.

Submitted that India should be now addressed. The subject of the linked file may be dealt with separately, reference being made to this one
