Assistant Surgeon Fernandez draw, as acting civil surgeon, Guntur, pay at Rs 150 and local allowance at Rs 150 per mensem under Article 157 Civil Service Regulations. While on special duty in connection with the Pushkaram festival at Bezvada he can be permitted to draw under article 98 Civil Service Regulations his pay at Rs 150 per mensem and deputation allowance not exceeding Rs 50 being one-fifth of his pay; but not the local allowance of Rs 150 which he draw as acting civil surgeon Guntur as local allowance is not salary in the sense in which that term is defined vide rule 3 article 47 (c) Civil Service Regulations.

Article 101 Civil Service Regulations does not apply to the case as Mr Fernandez was not deputed on Famine duty.

Surgeon-Genl's letter No. 442, dated 10th November 1897.

In G.O. No. 1334, Public, dated 8th October 1897 Government approved of the Surgeon-General's action in having deputed Assistant Surgeon A.P. Fernandez, Ag. Civil Surgeon of Guntur to Bezvada in connection with the Pushkaram festival. The Surgeon-General in para. 3 of his letter No. Tour 5 18 dated 9th October 1897, requested that the Assistant Surgeon might be granted a daily allowance of Rs. 5 ~~per diem~~ for the period (13th Sept. to 6th October 1897 both days inclusive) during which he was on deputation. The Accountant-General however, points out that a deputation allowance of Rs. 30 calculated on the substantive pay of the Assistant Surgeon is all that is admissible in the case. The Assistant Surgeon's salary as Ag. Civil Surgeon was Rs. 300 (substantive pay Rs. 150 + Local allowance Rs. 150 = 300) so that by the deputation he will, unless reimbursed be a loser at the rate of

Rs. 120 per mensem.

In these circumstances orders are solicited as to whether the special sanction of the Govt. of India should be sought for granting ^{him} an allowance at the rate of Rs. 5 per diem. ^{his} difficultly would not have arisen had the Sg. considered the case properly before deputing the Asst Surgeon, as he did, on his own responsibility

Notes in the CB

The following are the recent rulings regarding employment of medical officers on plague ^{and similar} duties.

Para 3(2) of G.O. No. 1008 Pub., d/30-11-91 sanctioned a charge allowance of Rs. 10 per mensem to Hospital Assistants employed on cholera or festival duty provided they are not drawing the allowance for an independent charge. This allowance was extended in G.O. 109 Pub., d/5-2-97 to Hospital Assistants deputed to inspect vessels or trains in connection with the plague, subject to the condition

Substantive pay. 150-0-0
Deputation allowance

Application to the Govt. of India seems unavoidable. The man must not be a loser of nearly Rs 100 because he was selected for special duty.

2. 3. G.O. No. 797 M, d/5th April 1897 contains ~~another~~ ruling of the Govt. of India granting subordinate civil medical officers employed on plague duty daily deputation allowances at the rate of Rs. 2 to Assistant Surgeons and as to Hospital Assistants.

4. G.O. No. 798 M d/5-4-97 contains the ruling of the Govt. of India sanctioning the grant of daily deputation allowances to Military Assistant Surgeons and Hospital Assistants on the effective list, deputed to famine or plague duty.

5. G.O. No. 520 Public dated 6th May 1897 contains India's ruling that officers of the Indian Medical deputed to plague duty can draw allowances at the rate laid down for officers deputed to famine work in article 101 C.S.P. even when deputed to plague duty within the province in which they are serving at the time of their deputation.

6. In its letter No. 339 d/21-4-97 the Govt. of India sanctioned the appointment of retired Military Assistant Surgeons, who are physically fit, for plague and famine duty, such officers to receive the pay of their grade at the time of retirement with an allowance of Rs. 100 per mensem, provided that their salary inclusive of pension does not exceed Rs. 350 a month. But in special cases Local Govts. are authorised to raise the limit to Rs. 500 a month.

7. G.O. No. 683 Public, dated 1st June 1897 contains India's sanction to the employment of Civil Assistant Surgeons on temporary plague and famine duty with the following allowances:-

(a) Pay at Rs. 100 a month

(b) Special allowance at Rs. 2 a day.

& (c) Travelling allowance to and from the place of their appointments; and to meet the great demand for medical officers for plague duty the Govt.

of India has sanctioned the employments of applicants ^{in app's} in the Uncovenanted Medical Service on a salary of Rs. 350
