I think Miss Pogson should not be furnished with the copies she asks for. It is ~~very~~ unusual to give copies of letters to India.

The G.O. she asks for No 40 of 21-11-93 though it does not directly affect her, gives a peg to hang patrias on.
 Nix p. 20. K

A pension of Rs 250 has been got for her & that only with difficulty.

At 15.2.98

I think she must be content with the promise of pension - I

W. will give the copies
