 RECEIVED SECRETARY GOVERNMENT OF MASSACHUSETTS asked to send copies of telegram
regarding the request of his transfer.
At 20 a.m.

Dear Mr. Arnold,
 You will have received my Telegram asking for 3 weeks privilege leave which I addressed to you instead of to the Board because I am under orders of transfer.
 My unfortunate brother had an epileptic fit yesterday morning & though I trust that there will not be a recurrence, I do not like to leave him here alone.
 He sails from Columbia on the 3rd Nov. & it is my desire to take

Mr Butterworth's transfer to Jubbalpur.

FOR ORDERS.

Mr Butterworth wires from Coimbatore that his brother who is staying with him is attacked with epilepsy, that it is impossible to have him, that he, Mr B. must take him to Ceylon & that he wants three weeks' privilege leave.

So far as can be ascertained at present Mr B. has for certain only two weeks priv. leave due.

A few days ago Mr B. wired on his own account to India saying his transfer was very inconvenient & asking if it could be cancelled! The Govt of India wire to me to say this was about the question & the telegram was communicated to Mr B.

Last night India wired urgent (telegram attached) that Butterworth had wired the Chief Commr that he could not reach Jubbulpore for a fortnight. The Chief C. says the delay is causing gravest inconvenience, & begs B. S. M. movements may be expedited.

No good will be result from wiring Mr B's telegram asking for privilege leave, for the need is urgent & they have already refused to listen to him. On the other hand he has already done himself harm by his telegrams to India & to the Chief Commr.

As Mr B's services are placed at disposal of India, ~~the~~ his telegram might be sent on & India asked to deal with it.

But I think the reply had better be that Govt cannot support your request for privilege leave, you must give over charge ~~at once~~ & proceed to Jubbulpore ~~without delay~~.

19/2/98

This not in this file as it should be, but I cannot delay circ. length it.

If cannot be yesterday &
I initiated the order thereon & returned it.

Yes - Let this be ^{withd.} I am sorry any for Mr Butterworth but the public service must have precedence of his private convenience - India has in the other telegram above mentioned said ⁱⁿ ~~in~~ almost the same words. He must go at once.
