GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

Most Honored Sir,

With due respect and profound submission I beg to appeal to you with these following lines hoping you will give due consideration and protect me in these hard days of famine.

I served in the Government Press for the space of 18 years as Binder and owing to brother's illness I was compelled to go to Ceylon and finding my brother having not recovered from his illness I was obliged to be employed there for about 2 years till his recovery of illness and had to return my native Place (Madras) and rejoined the Govt. Press where I have been serving till the 7th April 1878 and I am now under suspension of my services for I voluntarily let known the Superintendent of the Govt. Press the facts of my having been punished by the Presidency Magistrate in a suit brought by my own relatives by a revenge that I have cheated them Rs 3 1/2. This revenge caused the said relative of mine for my brother and myself having served him a notice to quit his dwelling house which belongs to us. The punishment was for the same reason.

I herewith enclose two copies of my testimonials granted by Foreman of Petitioning Press in 1888 and by the Govt. Printer of Colombo Govt. in 1896 for your satisfaction

Under these circumstances I humbly crave your favor to take my deplorable case into your merciful consideration and order the Superintendent of the Govt. Press to reinstate me in my capacity - as I have a large family to support in these hard days of famine

I humbly beg to remain
Most Honored Sir

OFFICE NOTE.

With reference to endorsement
D^o 1047, dated 4 May 1898 on Public current, D^o 1523, herewith returned, the Superintendent, Government Press, submits that during the 1st week of April when attending the Penitentiary Board Press, it was brought to his notice that
S. Vythilinga Mudali a binder of the Government Press had been convicted of an offence and was undergoing a sentence of imprisonment for one week. The undersigned therefore applied to the Magistrate concerned for a copy of his decision sentencing S. Vythilinga Mudali to imprisonment, under art. 207 of the Civil Service Regulations. Meanwhile the term of imprisonment of the convicted employee being over, he returned to office and requested permission to renew work stating that the complainant a relative of his, with a view to wreak his private vengeance on him involved him in a criminal case and brought him before the Court.

The Superintendent told him to wait till the receipt of the copy of the Magistrate's decision. This was received on the 20th April, and a copy of the charge and final order is given on the margin.

As this was an established charge of dishonesty, and as such, it terminates employment in the service of Government (Vide G.O. 12, Dae. 20, 1898), the following order was given to Sh. Vythilinga Mudali.

1. "Is informed with reference to his letter of the 16th instant (April) that the Superintendent declines to reinstate him; as he was convicted and sentenced to one week's rigorous imprisonment under Sec. 420 of the Indian Penal Code."

2. S. Vythilinga Mudali was entertained as a binder on the 9th June 1898 and during this short period of service, he has been regular in attendance and attentive to his duties. The Superintendent has no special recommendation on behalf of the applicant.

Charge.

Cheating the complainant in respect of Rs. 3 — entrusted to him on the 30th January 1898 upon his false representation that he would pay the said sum to one Thambusawmy Pillai and effect a compromise at Royapuram. Section 420, I. P. Code.

2nd Criminal Misappropriation in respect of the same. Section 403 I. P. Code.

Final Order.

The accused is convicted and sentenced to one week's rigorous imprisonment under section 420, Indian Penal Code.
