GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

Honble
The Chief Secretary
to the Government

With reference to section 109 of the Civil Service Regulations & Section 1, I beg to request that I may be considered as having held the appointment of Superintendent General Records substantively, the lien of Mr. Dutt on the appointment being sus-pended, he having held his special appointment for more than 3 years.
If this conception is is granted it will entitle me to an enhanced pension which, taking into consideration my long faithful service & hard work which will be borne out by the enclosed copy of the testimonial from Sir J. F. Lewis will be a great boon to me, under my present circumstances—

Yours obediently

J. J. L. L.

Mr. J. J. Corns served under me during the whole time that I was Chaplain a period of nine years and during the three latter years of that time he filled with much credit to himself the responsible position of Sup^t of the Branch with the arrangement of which he had much to do.

He was ever since I first knew him a very hard working capable trustworthy & particularly well conducted officer.

I learn to my great regret that since I quitted the service, he has been compelled very to ill health induced to a great extent by overwork & active on pension.

I intended whilst still in office to have given him the testimonial

SUBJECT.

Pension of Mr. J. T. Coombes, late clerk, Chief Secretariat.

FOR ORDERS.

Mr. C. H. H. Dombre, late permanent Supt. General Records in the Chief Secretariat was deputed on special duty for sorting the records in the Board's office in the temporary establishment sanctioned in G.O.
No. 1104, Revenue, dt. 29.12.93, recorded in G.O. R. No. 82, Fint, dt. 1.2.94.
The establishment was at first sanctioned for a period of three years which was extended to another year.
Mr. Dombre drew salary at Rs 250 from 1-3-94 to 28.2.96 when his salary was increased by Rs 50 per mensem for the additional work thrown on him for supervising the temporary establishment in the Madras Deputy Collector's Office - G.O. R. No. 188, Fint, dt. 15.2.96.
On Mr. Dombre's deputation sub arrange arrangements were made in the office.

The

Vide Page 6 of G.O. R. No. 82
Fint dt. 1.2.94

The clerks acting in these arrangements had to be changed as often as vacancies occurred and arrangements made in connection with the same.

Mr. Coombes the applicant was appointed Subro ten vice Mr. Donte from 1.12.96 to 7.5.96 and was subsequently promoted to act for another clerk on Rs 225 in another arrangement from 8.5.96 to 15.9.96. When this arrangement ceased he reverted to his Subro ten appointment from 16.9.96 and held it till the 12th July 1897 when he went on furlough from which date he ceased to be acting in the higher grade.

If his prayer be granted the chain of arrangements that have been made from the date of Mr. Donte's deputation will have to be revised and a good deal of confusion will be caused in altering the leave statements that have been submitted to the Accountant General's office every month during the past four years. Much more confusion will, it is submitted, arise in drawing the arrears of pay of the clerks that may happen to be in the proposed revised arrangements and in altering the service books and annual returns accordingly.

Not necessary

At the time when the temporary establishment was sanctioned for three years, permanent arrangements suspending the lieu of the deputed officer were possible and admissible under article 109 of the C. S. Regs. But this was not done. Further in his own interests the applicant could himself have moved the matter then pointing out the authority now quoted in his application. Under the circumstances the question is respectfully submitted for orders.

Submitted that Mr. Coombes' letter may be referred to the Accountant General for remarks. The matter will be very complicated if all the office arrangements since Mr. Coombes' appointment to act for Mr. Donte have to be revised. But it might perhaps be possible only to give only Mr. Coombes

Lett 70935 of 18. 4-98
Referred to the Accountant
General for report.

Mr. C. H. Dutt, who was a permanent appt. of Rs 200 in the Chief Secretariat, was placed on special duty in the office of the Board of Revenue on a ^{salary} ~~pay~~ of Rs 250 ^{in connection} ~~per mensem~~ in accordance with the ^{establishment} ~~arrangement~~ sanctioned in G.O. No. 1104 Rev. of 29. Decr.
1893 [G.O. No. 82 Finl of 1st Feby 1894]. This establishment was at first ^{sustained} ~~sustained~~ for three years and, with certain modifications, ^{it} has been extended from time to time. Mr. Dutt has remained on special duty ~~throughout~~ since the original sanction.

Mr. Coombes, the present applicant, was appointed sub. pro tem on Rs 200 vice Mr. Dutt from 1st December 1894. He held this post up to 7th May 1896, when he was ^{promoted} ~~appointed~~ to act on Rs 225 ~~and~~ from 8th May 1896 to 15th Sept 1896, reverted to sub pro tem Rs 200 on 16th Sept 1896 and continued as until he proceeded on furlough on the 12th July 1897 - He returned on the 11th December 1897 at the end of this furlough.

The Act. Genl. is requested to report whether he sees any objection to Mr. J. J. Coombes being considered, with reference to § 109 of the C.S.R., to have held the appt. on Rs 200 permanently with effect from the 1st December 1894, so far as the calculation of his pension is concerned

Session DEPARTMENT.

FORT ST. GEORGE,
Accountant-General's Office,

No. J.A.E. 19th May 1898.

From

J. Hesketh Biggs Esquire,

ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL TO THE

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

To

THE Chief Secretary to Government, Public Department.

SIR,

With reference to your memorandum No 935 dated April 1898 requesting me to report whether there is any objection to Mr. J. J. Coombes being considered with reference to article 109 of the Civil Service Regulations to have held the appointment of clerk in the Chief Secretariat on Rs 200 permanently from 1st December 1894 so far as the calculation of his pension is concerned, I have the honour to state that although under article 109 of the Civil Service Regulations, Mr. Coombes drew the full pay of the appointment rendered vacant consequent on the deputation of the permanent incumbent thereof to a temporary post, he cannot count that pay towards towards pension, as from the note at foot of the 2nd page of Mr. Coombe's pension application and from the Government orders quoted in the margin it appears that the appointment which Mr. C. H. Coombe holds in the Revenue Board's office as Superintendent of Records is temporary. Under articles 410 and 534 of the Civil Service Regulations, therefore he continues to count service for pension in his own substantive appointment in the Government office which precludes Mr. Coombe's acting allowance from being taken into account in the calculation of his pension, two officers not being able simultaneously to count service in respect of the same office vide article 387 of the Civil Service Regulations.

The enclosure to your memorandum under reply is herewith returned.

I have the honour to be,
 Sir,

Your most obedt. servt.,

 Accountant General.
