S.A.

I thought that I had better bring to your notice before issuing G.O. 740 Pub of 7/6/98 to all heads of offices, to be, that a similar G.O. - vide 633 Pub of 6/5/98 was only recently as widely circulated. Further, an office order in the current in the present case, and it is not usual, in fact I think it has never been the case, to print office orders for circulation with G.O.s. The name of the informant I have omitted, for, if the G.O. is to issue, it is complete without the name.

4/7/98

The publicity is to prevent the man dismissed from being re-employed in Govt service. The investigation to be of report etc in G.O. 740 Pub.
G.O. 740 is unnecessary. I feel Mr. Clerk has omitted mention of the G.O. quoted, which was then a mistake on my part.

I can't make out what-the S.A. is driving at.
