Note at the location of the graduation class of S. F. Phillips (Boston).

If the vacancy was due to the retirement of the existing by whom Rs 700, the senior man on Rs 600 is entitled to it and I shall have no reason to claim that vacancy. But this is a new post that would not have been created but for the abolition of the Statutory Civil Service and he could not have any reasonable expectation of getting it in preference to me. If I am now passed over, it will mean that His Excellency finds me incompetent to hold a 70-R place which I trust is not his intention as is evidenced by the fact of his having so graciously placed

My dear sir,

Many thanks for your kind letter of the 18th April. I am deeply grateful to His Excellency for his having so soon acceded to my request and placed me in charge of Erode division.

I understood that the Erode Subcollectorate has been formally transferred to the Provincial service and that the existing number (one) of Dy. Collectors at 700 Rs will be increased by one. I quite understand when you say that the me in charge of Grose division.

I beg therefore that these facts may be placed before His Excellency. If directed, I shall very gladly run up to Cozy for a day or two & furnish you any further information you may desire to have. May I suggest that pending further consideration the publication (if ordered) of the promise of the 600 Rupee man to 700 Rupees may be ordered to be postponed?

Please excuse me for this long letter

My dear Brundel,

Will you please at the enclosed from Ex Statutory Civilian R. Ramachandra Rao, & kindly let his Excellency know what answer to make?

The Trade Tax Collector has not as yet been ^{permanently} ~~formally~~ transferred, I suppose; for the appointment is only an acting one.
But the other question raised will have to be settled sooner or later it might perhaps be as well to settle it now.

Yours truly,

CS
FOR ORDERS

Mr. R. Ramachandra Rao was appointed as Probationary Assistant Collector on the 18th June 1890 and he was ^{then} informed that on the creation of the Provincial Civil Service he would be included in it and would be subject to all the rules and regulations applicable to that service. He was also told that he would be considered as having preferential claims to certain appointments to be sanctioned by the Government before other members of the Provincial Service were appointed. The standing order of 1892 provided that the candidate in other respects fully qualified. In 1892 fifteen appointments, to fill which members
