GENERAL HOSPITAL,
Madras, 29th October 1897.

From

J. Maitland
SURGEON-LIEUT-COLONEL W. R. BROWNE, M.D., Surgeon
SENIOR MEDICAL OFFICER,
GENERAL HOSPITAL, MADRAS,

To

The Secretary to the Surgeon General
With the Government of Madras
Madras.

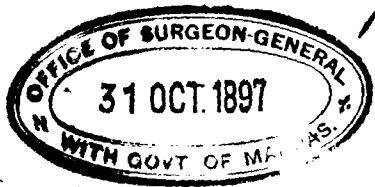

SIR,

I have the honor to request that Government may be asked to reconsider the question of my house rent on the following grounds:—

The final decision depriving me of house rent has been based upon the ground (vide letter no. 2896 from Accountant General, dated 18th September 1897, copy of which is attached) that my present appointment has involved "a change of allowances". It is admitted that the "mere change of nominal appointment" does not deprive me of the advantage of the reservation granted in the Government of India resolution no. 2987, Financial, of 16th June 1888. I submit with all due deference that had the Government of India intended that the concession should be limited in the way now proposed, such limitation would have been specified in their order. When the latter order was promulgated it was known that the officers to whom the privilege was granted would in due course of time be entitled to higher rates of pay and yet

NT

No intimation was made that such increase of pay would involve forfeiture of their privilege. The officers concerned were therefore justified in believing that their privilege would be continued to them through out the remainder of their service whether they subsequently obtained an increase of pay or not. It is, I submit, a very great hardship to Surgeon Major Pope and myself (the only officers remaining to whom this privilege is attached) that the usual reservation of existing rights should in our case be now withdrawn.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your most obedient servant
J. M. M. and
Surgeon General
Senior Surgeon.

The Secretary to the Surgeon General

The Hon. Sir Henry D'Almeida

Surg. 71. Col. Maitland's house - rent allowance.

In orders.

This is a parallel case to that of Surg. Major Pope, on which Government ~~has~~ has recently passed orders. The Q.O. is put up, and attention is invited to the notes & to the orders passed on them.

The point is that the Govt. of India has ruled that the concession granted in ~~the~~ ^{its} letter of June 1888 cannot be claimed when the officer claiming it has had a change of appointment involving change of emoluments. Surg. 71. Col.
Maitland was on that date on Furlough on Med. Certificate, his former appointment being that of Professor of Nat. History & Pharmacy, Med. College, Madras.

as Surg. Major (Rs 750 in the pay of this rank) The post is now held by Surg. Capt.
Lawford (Rs 700)
Dr. Mailland is now Surg. M.
Lt. & Senior Surg. General Hosp.
pay Rs 1250. He is therefore not entitled to the house-rent, as stated by the act.
General. There is nothing to add.

Order. No. 808/14.1.98

The Surgeon-General will be informed that the Government concurs in the view taken by the accountant general.

as Surg. M. Lt. Mailland has had a change of appointment involving a change of allowances since June 1888 he is not entitled to house rent
allowance.
