To The Military Secretary to the Government of Madras

I have the honour to lay the following enquiry before you In 1894 I was gazetted on probation to the Indian Army Reserve of officers and posted nominally to the Madras Ry. Vols. for 3 years in 1895 without completing my probation.

I have therefore to ask
1. Whether I am still reckoned as a member of the Reserve

NOTE FOR THE Chief Secretary.

It seems that in G.O. 4808 3.8.94 Mr. Duchesne was ordered to be attached to the Madras Vol. Guards in order to enable him to qualify for a commission in the Indian Army Reserve.

As the Comd^t of that Corps announced that this would be disliked by the officers of the Corps, this above G.O. was cancelled in G.O. 5718 13.9.94

and he was ordered to be attached to the Madras Ry Volunteers instead.

He now writes to ask if ^{very} ~~that~~ he was unable to complete his term of probation in Madras for the Indian Army Reserve.
(~~which~~ ^{This} is one month. ~~at~~ Candidates have also to satisfy a board of officers that they possess a sufficient amount of mil. knowledge for a trial.) see He asks if he can be allowed to complete his term of probation in Bombay, where he is now living.

The D. G. G. does not answer the question, but merely forwards Mr Duchesne's letter with reference to the G. G.'s quoted above. At the same time he says that Mr Duchesne's name is not in the Army Reserve List. This is naturally the case, as the gentleman in question himself says in his letter that he did not complete his probation in Madras. What he wants to know is, as he is now too old to ~~join~~ apply again, having reached the age of 30 in 1894, if he can be attached to some Bombay M. regiment in order to qualify for his commission. ~~in his appl.~~ This information, it appears, the D. G. G. must be asked for again.
