CHIEF SECRETARY'S
16 DEC 1897
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

Most Respected Sir,

I beg to bring the following to your kind notice with a hope that you will give it the matter your favourable consideration.

I was Serving in this department for the last 10 years as a Reader and during this period I was punctual in attendance, obedient to my superiors and also discharged my duties satisfactorily.

I was compelled by circumstances to arrange for my meals temporarily in one of my friend's house where I found it difficult to make myself ready for the office at the exact time and hence I was unfortunately late by 10 hours during the whole last month.

Sir, it feels me very much to tell you that I was entirely removed from the P. T. O.

might otherwise be imposed on me in the shape of fines, &c.

I applied to the Superintendent twice and up to this I did not get a reply. Permit me, Sir, to inform you that at this hard time of life and with my family depending on me I could not eke out my livelihood elsewhere after having served 10 years in this department.

I beg that you will give this your benign consideration and enable me to regain my appointment for which I shall feel grateful.

I addressed you as above before this thro' the Superintendent.

I beg to remain,
Respected Sir,
Your most Obedient Servant,
P. Sundararamanjulu,
Reading boy.

OFFICE NOTE.

In forwarding the accompanying letter from P. Sundararamanjulu, reading boy, the Superintendent, Government Press, submits the following particulars regarding his dismissal.

Age 29 years
Service 7 years

P. Sundararamanjulu was entertained as a reading boy in September 1890, on Rs. 7, and at the time of his dismissal he was still a reading boy on Rs. 9. The following figures show his absences from 1893:-

	Casual leave.	Sick leave	Leave without pay	Total no. of days absent
1893	"	68½	15	83½
1894	1½	19½	3	24
1895	4½	16	38½	59
1896	1	19	23	43
1897	½	24½	55	80

P. Sundararamanjulu has always been an unsatisfactory reading boy. On receipt him he was transferred temporarily to case

Acct. No. a 46.
150—1-8-97.

December 1895 to learn compositor's work and to enable him to earn a better income than remaining always as a reading boy with no prospects of being promoted to Rs 10 a month. In march 1896 he was pretransferred to the reading department as he made no effort to learn the work. In November 1896 he received his first warning for late attendance and frequent absences, a second warning was given in January 1897, a third warning in March, a fourth warning in May, a fifth warning in August, and he was dismissed from 1st instant.

P. Sundrarammayya spoke to the Superintendent twice after his dismissal begging to be reinstated, but he is not aware of any letter being sent to him.
