Mr. H. C. Screen's draft agreement as Asst. Supt., Govt. Press.

FOR ORDERS.

The Govt. Solicitor submits a draft agreement to be entered into with Mr. Screen, who is to be appointed Asst. Supt. at the Govt. Press (vide G.O. No. 370, dated 8th July 1898, flag). The agreement follows generally that entered into with Mr. Pritchard the previous Asst. Supt. (flag). Attention is however invited to the following two points.

In para. 10 the Govt. Solicitor has limited the period during which Mr. Screen may have leave on medical certificate with half pay, to three months in the five years. Mr. Screen in his application did not apparently contemplate any such limit (vide notes in G.O. 757, dated 14th June 1898 flag) and three months seems to be rather an illiberal allowance. Perhaps the time may be raised to six months in all. If Mr. Screen's engagement is renewed he will become a permanent Govt. Servant; and will be entitled to privilege after ten years, so that the period now suggested as that during which he may have sick leave is not excessive.

The other point referred to is the provision in clause 14 of the agreement for penalties to be paid by Mr. Skeen if he is dismissed. He is to pay a year's pay. This provision was included in Mr. Pritchard's agreement, but it is submitted that it is unnecessary. Mr. Skeen can be summarily dismissed for misconduct, and this, it is submitted, ^{could be} punishment enough.

How is it to be resumed? By trial?
It will look like prosecution & punishment in the position of having to justify its dismissal in the Court
