Munis.*FOR ORDERS.

In para 2 of G.O. No. 425, Pub. dated 28th May 1895 (flag A) the Political Agent Pudukottai was requested to report whether G.E. James and Matilda his wife, were still alive and residents in Pudukottai and whether they have any children. He replied in the affirmative in current No. 2272 of 1895. This was disposed in G. O. No. 644, Pub., dated 30th July 1895, in which the Political Agent was requested to report whether the parties desired that any steps should be taken to validate their marriage by legislation, the Advocate General having declared their marriage by the Rev. L.T. Paesler in 1892 invalid (para. 2 of G.O. No. 425 dated 28th May 1895). He replied that G.E. James and his wife both desired validation of their marriage by legislation (Current No. 232 of 1895, Legislative, and 389 of 1895, Public). India was addressed in G.O. 561, Pub., dated 1st April 1897 to validate this as well as
