8TH NOVEMBER 1888, No. 1055, PUBLIC.

CONFIDENTIAL.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From A. P. MACDONNELL, Esq., C.S.I., Secretary to the Government of India (Home Department—Public), to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, 29th October 1888, No. 36—2851.

It has been brought to the notice of the Governor-General in Council that in some parts of the country officials have, without the consent of their superiors, exerted themselves in collecting subscriptions for the promotion of objects of a political character. It appears to the Government of India to be very inexpedient that Government officials should be permitted to interest themselves in the raising of subscriptions; and I am therefore to call the attention of His Excellency the Governor in Council to the desirability of taking such steps as will effectually put a stop to the participation by public servants in the collection of subscriptions intended to promote political purposes of any kind whatever. It is obvious that great abuses and misconceptions might arise from such action or from any indiscretion on the part of Government officials, between the public and private aspect of whose acts people do not always discriminate.

ORDER—dated 8th November 1888, No. 1055, Public.

Communicated to the departments of the Secretariat and to all heads of departments for issue of the necessary orders, pointing out that the participation by public servants in the collection of subscriptions intended to promote political purposes of any kind whatever is strictly forbidden.
