SUBJECT.

Submitting, with remarks, for the orders of Government the application of Mr. L. Tibert, Special Assistant Collector, Malabar, for exemption from the Revenue Test.

could have been better based on the exceptional nature of the work on which he has been engaged, since he joined his division. His education has been rewarded by exemption from passing the second language required of Police Officers. If Mr. Vebat is allowed any concession it might, it is submitted be upon the same ground - perhaps in connection with the suppression of the recent attempted arrests. He has already been up for the exam. If he is to be exempted it is submitted that the order should issue before the result of the exam is known.

Mr. I do not think the claim to exemption 7/7/85 is very strong but it does seem somewhat absurd to require an officer to pass an exam to show that he is fitted for a position which he has been filling with credit for some time, as I believe. If the exemption is the granted it must be on the ground pointed out by the every where should be exempted if they fill their posts with credit for some time." Mr. Then he should acquire patience first. Mr.

This wd. strike at the root of the Standard Exams altogether. Assts. in Malabar S. Canara, Coimbatore & Vizag might equally claim exemption on the ground that their practical res. experience is limited, and all Assts.

Mr. Tibert served as Asst. for over two years in Trimmay & Coimbatore & could have passed his exams. by the end of that time with due diligence. Mr.

that I have thought that he has not the patience to work up a very dry subject like Revenue. He sits put only and he has stayed for most of his time in London and then comes back without incorporating with his knowledge in his of his past and in which he will be most surprised to require these things which they come practically before him.

I have had from Mr. S. H. Bliss but I do not know what he has to say about Mr. Tibert. He is a private student. He has not required to pass the exams. so that he may be qualified for employment in any one of various capacities in any part of the Pres. The C.S. is of the opinion that Mr. Tibert is probably be employed for most of his service in Malabar. This is an assumption wh. will not I think bear exam. The Hon. Mr.

Reference No. 724 dated 2nd July 1898.

Submitted for the orders of Government.

From the records of the Board of Examiners' office it appears that other officers serving in Malabar found no special difficulty in passing the examination from which Mr. Vibert now claims exemption, and the Board is therefore unable to support the application.
