GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following paper:—

G.O., Nos. 854, 855, Public, dated 7th July 1898.

Read—the following letter from J. M. TURING, Esq., Acting Head Assistant Collector, to the Collector of Bellary, dated Hospet, 3rd May 1898, Ref. on S. C. R. No. 540:—

I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to address Government to recommend me to the Government of India for the grant of the acting allowances of a Head Assistant Collector from the date (11th March) on which I took over charge of this division. Government can make such a recommendation, if it sees fit, under paragraph 3 of the Government of India's letter No. 4543-P., dated 13th October 1897, recorded in G.O., No. 1513, dated 22nd November 1897.

2. Since the date above referred to my position as regards responsibility and work has been in no way different from that of any other Divisional officer in charge of a large division (four taluks) except that I have been relieved of the actual hearing and disposal of first-class calendar cases and appeals.

3. The relief thus afforded is outweighed by the extra work and responsibility consequent on this district being under observation for plague.

4. This has increased my work both directly and indirectly; directly, because under your orders every plague paper requires my immediate personal attention, and indirectly, because, owing to the other Divisional officers being similarly burdened, a third jamabandi has fallen to the Head Assistant Collector. I have no hesitation in saying that the work is heavier at present than it would be at ordinary times if it included the whole of the magisterial work of the division.

5. It is for Government to decide whether the extra responsibility involved in plague work is "exceptional" in the sense required by paragraph 3 of the Government of India letter, but it is difficult to imagine a case which will be entitled to the benefit of the proviso in that paragraph, if mine does not meet its requirements.

Dis. No. 2099.

Submitted to Government, Public Department for favourable consideration.

2. Mr. Turing having passed the Lower Standard Examination in January last (G.O., No. 419, dated 10th March 1898), was on 19th February 1898 appointed to act as Head Assistant Collector, Bellary, and joined the acting appointment on 11th March 1898. He was not appointed to be a Magistrate of the first class until 11th May 1898 and cannot therefore be allowed the acting allowance of a Head Assistant Collector from 11th March 1898 to 11th May 1898 without the special sanction of the Government of India, as laid down in paragraph 2 of its letter No. 4543-P., dated 13th November 1897, to the Accountant-General, Madras.

3. I can fully endorse what is stated by Mr. Turing in paragraphs 3 and 4 of his letter.

(Signed) J. T. LEVER,
for Acting Collector.

23rd May 1898.

No. 2153.

Submitted to Government.

Mr. Turing was allowed acting allowance as Head Assistant Collector, Bellary, from 11th May 1898, the date on which he was invested with first-class powers. If Mr. Turing's case be held to fall under paragraph 3 of the Government of India letter No. 4543-P., Finance and Commerce Department, dated 13th October 1897, recorded in Madras G.O., No. 1513, Public Department, dated 22nd November 1897, the special sanction of the Government of India will be necessary to the grant of acting allowance to Mr. Turing from 11th March 1898, the date on which he joined his appointment as Head Assistant Collector, Bellary.

Letter—Mis. No. 855, Public, dated Ootacamund, 7th July 1898, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department.

I am directed to submit the following case for the favourable consideration and orders of the Government of India.

2. Mr. J. M. Turing, I.C.S., an Assistant Collector, who passed the Lower Standard Examination in January 1898, was appointed to act as Head Assistant Collector, Bellary, and took charge of his duties on the 11th March last. He was invested with first-class Magisterial powers on the 11th May. Under the ruling contained in the 2nd paragraph of Finance and Commerce Department letter to the Accountant-General, Madras, No. 4543-P., dated the 13th October 1897, Mr. Turing has been allowed acting allowance as a Head Assistant from the 11th May only, the date on which he obtained first-class Magisterial powers.

3. Owing to the Bellary district being under observation for plague much extra work and great additional responsibility were thrown upon Mr. Turing during the time he held charge of the Head Assistant's division, and I am directed to request that his case may be treated as exceptional and that, under paragraph 3 of the letter quoted above, he may be permitted to draw the usual acting allowance from the 11th March 1898, the date on which he joined his appointment as Head Assistant Collector of Bellary.

(Signed) G. STOKES,
Chief Secretary.

READ—also the following paper:—

From H. LUSON, Esq., Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Establishments), to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, 12th August 1898, No. 699.

In reply to your letter Mis. No. 855, Public, dated the 7th ultimo, I am directed to say that, under the circumstances stated therein, the Governor-General in Council accepts the recommendation of the Government of Madras for a relaxation in favour of Mr. J. M. Turing, I.C.S., of the conditions under which acting allowances are granted to Junior Civilians acting as Head Assistant Collectors. His Excellency in Council accordingly sanctions the grant of the usual acting allowance to Mr. Turing from the 11th March 1898, the date on which he took charge of his duties as Acting Head Assistant Collector of Bellary instead of from the 11th May 1898 when he was invested with first-class Magisterial powers.

ORDER—No. 1099, Public, dated 29th August 1898.

The foregoing letter from the Government of India will be communicated to Mr. J. M. Turing, I.C.S., and to the Accountant-General.
