SUBJECT.

J. Reeves' leave.

FOR ORDERS.

I am afraid we must stop his leave. I have already suggested to H.E. that he might go to the new Impo Station & be established at Pakala Junction, a point of great importance as leading (1) to Kallene & the South & (2) to Zibete, a place where plague is practically certain to spread if it overgrows there.

In the ref. to H.M.'s notes at D, as to whether his leave should be stopped. J. Reeves has been warned that it probably will be cancelled. He expected to hand over charge on Sept 1st.
