Bangalore, 13 July 1898

Dear S. Hultzsich

I have not yet received a supply of the new volume from the binders, but will send you a copy when able to do so.

I will also make inquiries as to what copies are available of the other volumes.

I may mention that the binder I am using is the only one

CHIEF SECRETARY
15 JUL 1898
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

that does not send me
its archaeological publications. I always get such from Bengal,
Bombay, the North West and other Govts, but not from Madras!

Yours sincerely
H. R. S. S.

To

The Chief Secretary to Government.

Sir,

With reference to the enclosed
D. O. letter from Mr. L. Rice, C. I. E., Director of Archaeological Researches in Mysore, Bangalore, I have the honor to submit that, evidently owing to some mistake, Mr. Rice has not received free copies of the Archaeological publications of the Madras Government, to which his office and bearing seem to entitle him. I therefore request that his name might be

be added to the distribution list of these publications, including Mr. Rea's and my own annual reports, and that he might be provided with a copy of those of Mr. Rea's and my own volumes which may not have been sent to him already before.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
G. H. Murray

Epigraphist.

OFFICE NOTE.

In reply to Ref. no. 1619 Public dated 3rd August 1898. (herewith returned) the Superintendent, Government Press, submits that a reference was made to Mr. Rice asking him as to the volumes he has received. In reply he says "My letter to Dr. Hultzsch, referred to the publications of his special department, Epigraphy. I have received and acknowledged those of the Architectural department mentioned in your first list. Of the works in your second list Mr. Sewall's two volumes were sent to me many years ago. But the other three volumes, Imperial series nos. VI, IX and X were not sent to me. The two last I have, but they were not received from the Madras Government as to VI I do not appear to have."

2 Regarding Copies belonging to the old series of Archaeological Survey of Southern India, he says "I believe

I have no. 2 on your list though I cannot at present find it. I do not seem to have had nos. 1 and 3.

3. It will be seen from the above that Mr. Rice has not received the following:—

New Imperial Series

VI The Buddhist Stupas of Amaravati and Jaggayyapeta, Burgess, 1887.

Southern India (Old Series)

I Notes on the Amaravati Stupa - Burgess, 1882.

III. List of Ancient Monuments selected for Conservation in the Madras Presidency, with Report and Notes on Conservation, Rice, 1891.

4. Of the above no. VI of the New Imperial Series is out of stock. Orders are solicited for supplying him with the remaining two publications which are available at the Press.
