SUBJECT.

Requesting order as to what steps shall be taken with a view to the ^{services of the} European medical officers ^{arriving in Madras from England} being retained for a further period of 6 months.

These doctors are bound to stay under para 4 of the agreement - subject to the agreement on 6-salary.

11/5/98. 1898 The S.G. should be told to inform these gentlemen individually that the Govt. desires to keep them at least three months after the expiry of their nine months' agreement to perform & do so on existing terms & the condition that if they are not received upon this extension of three months are on the notice will be given of the termination their service - Fresh agreements, & be drawn by the Govt. will have to be presented by them. any of them ask for better terms, we can consider demands] But [] should not be communally, or he will be blighting out of them to the Govt. will, if pleased, give them more than now get.

 I see they are said in para 1 of the agreement to have rec'd. 1st cl. return tickets. If this is arrangement had been made with the Govt., a time by which they came out, for extension of period of journey of their tickets. Has the some of the return ticket of the one who died? Can recover anything in that?
