Sir,

On the 12th October 1882,
I petitioned the Secretary of State for India, with a view to — recovering from Mr. William Southey Whiteside a sum of — £266. 11. — due to me for board and education of his two sons.

I venture to enquire whether any arrangement has been — made by Mr. Whiteside for — the payment of this large sum.
The non payment of it has been the cause of serious embarrassment.

I remain &c.

LETTER—from

THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF FORT ST. GEORGE,

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA, HOME DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

In continuation of my letter, No. 1150, dated 11th June, instant, Public Department, I am directed to forward an Addendum which Mr. Wallace wishes to append to his Memorial and a Minute which His Excellency the Governor has recorded thereon.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Chief Secretary.

OOTACAMUND,
16th June 1883.

ADDENDUM TO

MEMORIAL of JOHN WALLACE, Madras Civil Service, to the Most Honorable the Viceroy and Governor-General of India in Council.

In support of your petitioner's allegation of bona fides, in his use of language, to the Honorable Mr. Carmichael, to which the epithet "insulting" has been applied, and in verification of your petitioner's assumption of the Honorable Mr. Carmichael's influence in disposing of the patronage of the Civil Service, implied in your petitioner's conduct, your petitioner would refer to the appointment* of Mr. Dumergue, a son-in-law of the Honorable Mr.

* Fort Saint George Gazette, dated 22nd May 1883. Carmichael to act as Sub-Collector of Salem (Station, Oosoor, one of the prizes of the Service) in supersession of several members of the Service, senior by some years to Mr. Dumergue, and also to the appointment* of Mr. Wedderburn, a brother of another son-in-law of the Honorable Mr. Carmichael, to act as Head Assistant Collector of Nilgiris (another of the prizes of the Service.)

BELMONT, OOTACAMUND,
11th June 1883.

MINUTE BY THE RIGHT HON'BLE THE PRESIDENT, dated Ootacamund.

If the mind of Mr. Wallace had not been altogether darkened by his antipathy to Mr. Carmichael, he would have remembered that it is the Governor of Fort St. George who, as President in Council, proposes appointments. I accordingly proposed the two, to which Mr. Wallace alludes, on my own responsibility. Mr. Carmichael might, if he had so pleased, have recorded a Minute against the appointment of either gentleman, on the ground that he was an unfit person to fill the office for which I proposed him, but there his power would have had an end. If Mr. Carmichael or any other official of his long experience and high public services in this Presidency had asked me to send any man to any particular place, I would, of course, have given his wishes very respectful consideration, but Mr. Carmichael made no request to me of the kind.

2. The acts animadverted on are wholly mine, except in so far as any of my three colleagues might have expressed his dissent on the ground of unfitness; but as both Messrs. Dumergue and Wedderburn are thoroughly well suited to their respective appointments, that was out of the question.

in Council

In support of your Petitioners allegation of bona fides, in his use of language, to the Honorable Mr. Carmichael, to which the epithet insulting has been applied, and in verification of your Petitioners assumption of the Honorable Mr.
Carmichael's influence in despising of the patronage of the Civil Service, implied in your Petitioners conduct, your Petitioner would refer to the appointment of Mr. Dumerque, a son-in-law of the Honorable Mr. Carmichael to act as sub-collector of Salem (Station, or rather one of the prizes of the Service) in supersession of several members of the Service, Senior by some years to Mr.
Dumerque, and also to the appointment of Mr. Wedderburn a brother of another son-in-law

If the mind of Mr. Wallace had not considered them the best to be made under the circumstances wholly irrespective of Mr. Carni.
